President Makes Appeal For People's Vote Of Confidence

MAIN LINE BLOCKED: Derailed cars on Chesapeake & Ohio railroad track blocked rail traffic between Grand Rapids and Chicago this morning. Deraiment occurred when auto, driven by William A. Carpenter, 25, Watervliet, rammed freight on Red Arrow highway a mile east of Watervliet. Carpen-ter was killed. Passengers aboard C & O passenger train, due into Twin Cities at 9:25 a.m. today, were put on buses at Hartford. Freight was due through at 2 p.m. today but C & O officials expect tracks to be clear by then. Car-train crash occurred about 3:17 a.m. (Staff photo by Harry Smith)

TV Speech Milder Than Expected

Nixon Stresses
Importance Of
Senate Election

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon, calling next Tuesday's election "probably the most important and decisive Senate election" in American history, has appealed to the nation for a vote of confidence in himself and his programs.

"Vote for those men who will vote for the President rather than against him so that the President can keep his promises to you, the American people," Nixon told 8,000 Republican partisans in Anaheim Convention Center and television viewers across the nation Friday night.

The Republican National Committee purchased network time for a telecast of the speech in the wake of Thursday night's incident at San Jose, Calif., in which rocks, bottles and eggs were hurled at the President.

GLOVES STAY ON

Nixon had said "the time has come to take the gloves off" and that he would discuss in the Anaheim speech "what America must do to end this wave of violence and terrorism." But he gave a toned-down version of the same basic speech he has been delivering in political swings about the nation.

The President said, in referring to the San Jose incident, "It's time to draw the line" against violent demonstrators and that the Republican candidates for whom he has spoken have taken a strong stand against "this kind of lawlessness and this kind of violence."

Nixon appealed to voters to "stand with these men who understand the issues."

After the speech, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon will amplify his remarks on the San Jose incident today in a speech at Phoenix, first stop on a four-state, windup political swing to Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah.

Nixon's speech received an enthusiastic reception from the party faithful who waved small American flags and held up multicolored signs, including ones that proclaimed "No Rocks in Anaheim" and "We're for Nixon, Not Rocks." Both of these were held aloft behind Nixon, and in view of the television cameras.

NO HECKLERS

In contrast to many Nixon speeches, there were no hecklers and demonstrators inside the hall. Outside, a few dozen demonstrators, some opposing (See back page, sec. 1, col. 1)

Train Wreck Blocks Tracks

Young Watervliet Man Dies In Spectacular Auto Crash

WATERVLIET—A spectacular car-train crash killed a young Watervliet man here today and caused the derailment of four train cars, thus shutting down the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and blocking Red Arrow highway. The victim was identified as William Arthur Carpenter, 25, box 494, Red Arrow highway, Watervliet. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. A. J. Dalgleish of Watervliet, a Berrien county deputy medical examiner.

The crash was reported at 3:17 a.m. at the Chesapeake & Ohio crossing on Red Arrow highway, about a mile east of the city limits. Carpenter was traveling alone.

The deraiment of the four cars near the front of the train tore up track and knocked down power lines, according to sheriff's Deputy Randy Arnt. The highway was still blocked 9:30 a.m.

The tracks through Watervliet were shut to all trains this morning. However, only a passenger train due into the Twin Cities at 9:25 a.m. from Grand Rapids had been affected so far. Passengers aboard the train were detoured by bus from Hartford around the wreckage.

C&O reported a freight train is due through at 2 p.m., but that the tracks are expected to be cleared by that time.

Carpenter was the 53rd person to die so far this year in traffic accidents in Berrien county. His death pushes the year's death toll to one more than the 52 recorded for all of 1969.

Arnt said the car was traveling northeast on Red Arrow highway, according to skid marks he said measured 161 feet.

Train conductor John Hunt, 57, Grand Rapids, said the auto struck the side of the 17th car, Hunt said this caused other cars to sway, derailling four near the engine. He said three of the cars carried truck trailers "piggyback," while another contained air conditioners. The end of this car was ripped open, he said.

Hunt said the freight was traveling west from Grand Rapids to Chicago and was moving about 20 miles an hour. Hunt said he didn't know how long it would take to clear wreckage and repair the tracks.

Arnt said the crossing is marked both by cross-arms and flashing signal lights, which were in operation.

An Indiana & Michigan Electric Co. spokesman said power lines knocked down left only two families without service.

Mr. Carpenter was born in Watervliet, May 1, 1945, the son of Nelson and Mildred Erickson Carpenter. He had served in the U.S. Navy and was an employee of the Watervliet Paper Company.

In addition to his parents, survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Kenneth (Jolene) Sheets of Paw Paw and Mrs. Wilson (Beverly) Frazier and Mrs. Watervliet, and his grandmother, Mrs. Effie Carpenter of Lamirata, Calif.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Hutchins funeral home, Watervliet. The Rev. Harvey H. Lord, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, will officiate.

Burial will follow in Watervliet cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p.m. today.

Errant Father Jailed As Warning To Pay

A New Douglas, Ill., man with an ex-wife and three children in Berrien county was cited for contempt of court this week and ordered jailed for a month by Berrien Circuit Judge Chester J. Byrns.

Another man faced this week with immediate payment of $432.50 in arrearage or 60 days in jail made the payment.

Airlines Need Some
Up Aileron

Though the accountants are several months distant from presenting their final figures, the airline industry already has put down 1970 as a bumpy weather period.

In 1969 the scheduled airlines earned only $55 million on a $8.8 billion volume.

The first six months of 1970 show a $58 million deficit against an income slightly under $5 billion. Everyone in the trade looks for the second half to increase that loss substantially.

The villain immediately in sight is the failure of traffic to continue its phenomenal growth pattern set in the '60s.

Between 1963 and 1968, passenger boardings grew 17 per cent annually. The 1970 rate will do well to hit 2 per cent.

Freight volume increased 25 per cent a year. The 1970 anticipation is 6 per cent.

Discovering Waste

Congressional investigators have uncovered a real scandal. They have discovered that the Army wastes things. What will they turn up next?

A House Government Operations subcommittee said in a report describing conditions from 1965 to 1968 that there is evidence of "appalling waste" in the supply system behind the United States war effort in South Vietnam.

If the committee had discovered that there wasn't evidence of "appalling waste," that would be news.

The problems, the report said, stemmed from the decision to rush troops to Vietnam before port facilities, depots, warehouses and control systems could be developed, and lasted until order was established in 1968.

At first there was a shortage, but it quickly turned into an "overflow" which created a shipping backlog. Material was hurriedly shifted at random to storage areas. Documentation was lost or rendered illegible. Locator systems became ineffective and records broke down. Because goods could not be traced, they were reordered from the U.S.

It has always been thus with the U.S. military supply system.

Blackouts Above
And Below Border

Productivity Drop

There can be little doubt that increased productivity made possible by the industrial revolutions, has been mainly responsible for the improved standard of living.

In theory, as the volume of production increases over the input of man hours, all segments of society benefit. Management and workers benefit by increased profitability and wages, and the consumer benefits through lower prices made possible by increased manufacturing efficiency.

In practice, increasing productivity works equally well, providing all the contributing factors fall into their proper places. Increased productivity means little if wage increases push up unit costs, or if output outstrips demand, or if management retains all the benefits of increased efficiency in profits instead of passing a portion of the savings on to the consumer.

Having noted these and other potential interferences to the theory of productivity, there is still much truth in the premise that no industrial society can continue to progress unless it can continue to increase its rate of productivity.

Judged by this score, American industry faces a challenge. For a number of years prior to the mid-1960s, productivity, as measured by total output divided by man-hours expended, rose at an annual rate of about 5 per cent. In the last several years this rate has been declining, and last year figured out to less than 1 per cent.

This is not good enough for a nation encountering increasing industrial competition from Europe and Japan. Perhaps what is needed at the moment is a rebirth of the conviction that real hard work is good for both the spirit and the pocket book.

Kitchens of the future will be so equipped that a meal can be prepared by pushing a button. This should make good cooks of many husbands who now only think they are.

DR. COLEMAN

..And Speaking
Of Your Health

IF EVER a man chose the most inappropriate time to pull a social, political and medical boner, it was recently done by Dr. Edgar F. Berman, a former member of the Democratic National Committee's Policy Planning Council. Dr. Berman said that women are unfit to hold down important office and to render significant contributions to society because of their menstrual patterns.

The implication was that during menstrual periods and at the change of life, or menopause, a woman's functioning capacity is reduced to limits of lesser capability than the "stalwart men" whom he immortalizes. Mrs. Felice Schwartz and Mrs. Pat Schiffer, president and vice president of a remarkable organization, Catalyst, emphatically deny Dr. Berman's misconception about the capabilities of women during any normal physiological process.

Both Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Schiffer delicately and with exquisite judgment deny Dr. Berman's assertions without any direct attack on him, or possible masculine deficiencies, or man's emotional distress during his change of life.

Catalyst, a national nonprofit organization in New York City, devotes itself to using the experience and ability of educated women who want to combine family and work. Their vast experience totally contradicts Dr. Berman's statement.

In fact, Catalyst's research projects over the past eight years clearly demonstrated that, during any physiological phase of their lives, women contribute significantly, with emotional stability, to every facet of our society.

Now that virus had better watch out.

A new and remarkable drug has recently been discovered which, in experimental studies, seems to be a potent weapon against that very elusive virus. The drug, Isoprinosine, is undergoing intensive preliminary

PROPOSAL C
HITS CIVIL RIGHTS

The politicians who at this time have skillfully voiced their objections to Proposal C know full well the hidden implications of this piece of ballot bigotry.

We would hope that the people voting Nov. 3 have considered the economic bomb which will hit us all if the proposal is passed.

The amount of money saved in termination of parochialism is minute compared to the taxes we will bear to cover the cost of additional school buildings, hiring additional teachers and administrators, and buying additional materials. These taxes would be the result of forced closing of private schools which is the true intent of Proposal C.

We also hope that by now voters have been contacted by the original backers of a now obliterated proposal. The proposal as backed by the M.E.A. and the Methodist Church is no longer in existence and the members of these organizations must themselves vote against the existing proposal.

Without fire and police protection, with increased taxes which would wipe out private funds supporting private schools, without opportunity for the same social, health, and remedial services (for which even private school supporters pay taxes), the private schools will be wiped out of existence.

RELIGION TODAY

Baptists Enraged By
Playboy Philosopher

By Rev. LESTER KINSOLVING

The archconservative wing of the 11.5 million-member Southern Baptist Convention was shocked last spring when the denomination's Christian Life Commission extended a speaking engagement to a representative of Playboy magazine.

Anson Mount, Playboy's "religion editor" (masquerade of public affairs) was invited to debate the "Playboy Philosophy" of his publisher, Hugh Hefner. His opponent was the Rev. William Pinson, Associate Professor of Christian Ethics at Southwest Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

While the Christian Life Commission is supposed to confront Southern Baptists with contemporary issues, its arrangement of this unique and intriguing encounter evoked furious protests.

The transcript of this debate has only recently been printed, and it reveals Kinsolving that Professor Pinson all but burned the cottontail off Playboy's house theologian.

Mount was funny and charming—except for violating his hospitality by extensive and blatant brag-advertising for his mammary monthly.

"We have become perhaps the leading editorial forum in the current reexamination of moral values," affirmed Mount, modestly. "Playboy is read by 20 million young men and women each month—and they are not just any 20 million," he noted, democratically, "but the movers and shakers and the makers of tomorrow."

Moreover: "Tens of thousands of ordained ministers read Playboy religiously—virtually all of our irate clergy correspondents took pains to explain the accidental circumstances under which they just happened to have come across a copy of Playboy!"

He then revealed that Mr. Hefner's philosophy is hardly unique: "A large number of learned and qualified authorities have said almost exactly these same things. . . . I can only assume that fundamentalists read Playboy but they don't read books."

He also contended, in quoting the Bunny Baron, that Hefner is not a completely hedonistic libertine: "Sex is at its best an expression of love and adoration, but this is not to say sex should be limited to love alone." But, explained Mount: "We're so hung up with some of the old irrational taboos."

The Rev. Mr. Pinson replied by quoting Playboy's own citation of Kinsey's statistics that 85 per cent of America's males and 50 per cent of its females "That doesn't sound much like a suppressed society!"

He also cited Hefner's contention that the majority of these people have no regrets. Our regret that he noted, however, came from a coed: "I don't think the way to help men gain a sense of women's worth is to deprecate women by dressing them as rabbits."

Professor Pinson then proceeded to take Hefner apart:

"He often states questionable interpretations as unquestionable facts"—such as Hefner's contention that American free enterprise has eliminated "illiteracy, famine and disease."

"What Hefner's argument really says is that we ought to make our creed match our deeds, instead of making our assist a man to practice fidelity some time in their lives?"

"Why should numerous premarital sexual experiences assist a man to practice fidelity in marriage? . . . Who will the Playboy marry? . . . What is to happen 10 to 15 years later when the man's playmate is not the picture of sex she used to be? Is he justified in turning her in for a new model?"

The Christian cannot consider a person made in God's image as a toy."

"Playboy has great faith in reason. But I doubt that any two people can know beforehand that no one 'will get hurt' . . .

I suppose this could be possible if neither of them cared for each other, neither were part of a family, neither of them had venereal disease, and at least one were sterile."

Then Professor Pinson noted: "Playboy talks more about sex than any other subject." And somewhat ominously (for Playboy's circulation department) he cited theologian Harvey Cox: "Sex is fun, but when it becomes nothing but fun then pretty soon it isn't even fun anymore."

Despite Pinson's having attacked the Playboy philosophy so effectively, the mere invitation to a representative of this magazine enraged the arch conservatives. This June, at the Southern Baptist annual convention in Denver, they mustered nearly one third of the vote necessary to either fire Commission chairman Foy Valentine, or abolish the Commission altogether.

But late this summer, the Commission headquarters in Nashville had a visitor: Anson Mount, who asked for a copy of the debate transcript—and expressed considerable praise for Professor Pinson's performance. Since then, the Commission has received requests for 70 copies of the debate transcript—from Playboy headquarters in Chicago.

Opening lead—five of hearts. Whenever you play a hand where the outcome is in doubt, you must give thought to the many ways the defenders' cards can be divided that could place the contract in jeopardy. Once you are aware of these dangers, it becomes far easier to combat them.

Here is a typical case. West leads a heart and East plays the queen on it. Before deciding whether or not to win, you should do some serious thinking.

The first question to ask yourself is, "What can defeat me?" Obviously, if West has the king of clubs you can make the contract by winning the heart and finessing the queen of clubs.

However, you are of course aware that this may not be your lucky day and that East may have been dealt the king of clubs. In that case you would be defeated when he took the queen, returned a heart, and West cashed four heart tricks.

Since the possibility of East's having the king of clubs and West's having five hearts is decidedly real, you resolutely decline to play to the first trick before searching for a way of overcoming that distribution if it exists.

Sure enough, a little thought convinces you that the entire situation can be managed without running any risk. Accordingly you play the nine of hearts on East's queen. When he continues with a heart and you play the jack, you no longer need worry whether West has the king of clubs or whether he started with five hearts.

In either case you are sure of three trump, since you plan to take a perfectly safe club finesse later on. If it loses and East has no more hearts, you are entirely safe. If it loses and East does have another heart, you are equally safe because in that case West cannot have started with more than four hearts.

It pays to plan the play.

Hearings Demanded By Others

Police Pushing Drug Crackdown In Berrien, Cass

Forty-five of 51 persons arrested Thursday night in a concerted drive by area police agencies against alleged drug traffic were arraigned before district court judges Friday on a variety of charges.

Six other persons arrested are juveniles who were referred to juvenile court.

The charges against the 45 ranged from sale of heroin and marijuana to inmates of a disorderly house, a misdemeanor. Twenty-nine persons charged with this misdemeanor all pleaded innocent. All persons charged with felonies demanded preliminary hearings.

They were arrested by a force of some 70 officers who staged simultaneous raids on four sites in Berrien and Cass counties. Most of the arrests were made at Fair Avenue Recreation, 153 North Fair, Benton township. Four arrests came in the Cass raid on a home in the Silver Creek township. Also struck were homes at 361 East May street and 545 Niles street, Benton Harbor.

The arrests were made by troopers from state police posts at Benton Harbor, South Haven, Paw Paw and New Buffalo and officers from Benton, Harbor, Benton township and Cassopolis police departments and the Berrien and Cass sheriff's department.

$20,000 BONDS
Judge John T. Hammond set bonds of $20,000 each for five persons who demanded preliminary examination on charges of selling heroin: James E. Henderson, 23, of 267 Kirby avenue, Benton Harbor; Robert Lee Williams, 35, of 363 Washington street, Benton Harbor; Jackie Palmer, 23, of 167 Kirby avenue; Woodrow Anderson, 34, of 307 Pleasant, Benton Harbor; and Maurice C. Bland, 38. (When booked Thursday night, Bland gave an address of 272 South McCord but the proprietor there said he is not a resident. Court records show an address of 818 East High street.)

Stephen Brewer, 20, of 766 South Crystal, Benton township, demanded examination on a charge of selling heroin. Judge Paul Pollard set bond at $5,000. Brewer pleaded innocent as an inmate of a disorderly house.

Three persons demanded examination on charges of selling marijuana: Richard Bonds, 28, of 631 Waukonda avenue, Benton township; L.C. Flemming, 22, of 195 Concord road, Benton township; and Cassell Yates, 23, of 684 Highland avenue, Benton Harbor. Bonds are $10,000 each for Flemming and Bonds and $20,000 for Yates.

DEMANDS HEARING
Robert Tucker, 46, and Henry Wilson, 53, both of Hartford, demanded examination on charges of carrying a concealed weapon in a motor vehicle. Mrs. Lessie J. Murkey, 27, of 545 Niles street, Benton Harbor, pleaded innocent to illegal use of marijuana. Cass Yates Sr., 46, of 135 Clay street, Benton Harbor, stood mute to a charge of possessing gambling paraphernalia.

The four men arrested in the Cass county house all appeared in Fourth district court, Cassopolis, Friday to be arraigned on charges of possessing marijuana.

Darrell A. Kline, 20, 503 Polis street, Buchanan, demanded examination. He was released on his own recognizance.

The other three won a continuance of their arraignment so that they could obtain attorneys. They are Glen Billhimer, 19, and James E. Mitchell, 20, both residing at a house at the corner of Huckleberry and Garrett roads, Silver Creek township, Cass county, where the raid was made; and Hugh B. Klecka, 19, South Bend.

Juveniles Face LSD Charges

Lincoln Township Camp-Out Scene Of 5 Arrests

Berrien county sheriff's deputy J.A. Leonard reported he arrested five juveniles Friday night on charges of possession of LSD. One was from St. Joseph, and the others were from Lincoln township.

Leonard said he was called to a field off Roosevelt road, Lincoln township, about 8 p.m. by an area resident who became suspicious when he saw youths pitching a tent.

Leonard said a boy and girl were inside the tent and that he confiscated several sugar cubes containing suspected LSD. Preliminary tests indicate the substance was LSD, said Leonard.

The juveniles included three boys and two girls, ages 14 through 18. Leonard said after he found the two in the tent, the other three approached. The boys were lodged in the county jail, while the girls were remanded to their parents, Leonard said.

Stevensville Methodists Endorse 'C'

STEVENSVILLE — The Stevensville United Methodist church has endorsed Proposal C against parochialism by adopting a resolution at its annual conference Thursday.

Pastor Lloyd Phillips read the resolution as follows: "Whereas we believe that parochialism will be detrimental to public schools, because it will undermine the quality of public school education, and to private schools, because it will necessitate public control and thus defeat their reason for being;

"And whereas parochialism is a threat to the principle of separation of church and state, and indeed has been declared unconstitutional in the state of Connecticut;

"Therefore the local annual church conference of Stevensville United Methodist church urges all voters to vote 'yes' on proposal C."

Must Raise $125,000

All-Out Push Needed To Reach UCF Goal

United Community Fund volunteers today prepared for an all-out effort to raise the $125,000 that is still needed if UCF is to reach its campaign goal.

An official audit, held at the UCF office, yesterday showed that UCF now has 78.8 per cent of its $590,800 goal, with pledges of $465,853. The latest total is an increase of $52,000 in the past week.

LOWER THAN EXPECTED
Despite good showings in the Industrial, Women's and Utilities, Transportation and Construction divisions, late solicitations in several other campaign sections have kept the overall total lower than UCF leaders had expected.

The next audit is scheduled for next Thursday, Nov. 5, at the UCF office, 305 Lake boulevard, St. Joseph. Campaign Chairman Charles W. Johnson has asked UCF volunteers to turn in their reports by noon of that day.

Two new winners of the UCF Good Neighbor Award also were announced yesterday. The award is given to employee groups that show an outstanding increase over pledges made in the previous year.

The employees of the construction machinery division of Clark Equipment Co. and the Berrien County Community Mental Health Services Board are the latest to join the Good Neighbor ranks. Seventeen such awards have been won in the current campaign.

At Clark Equipment, 989 employees pledged $15,621 to UCF, an average of $15.80 each. Richard Dreyer headed the UCF drive at Clark. Earl Place was chairman of the Mental Health Services Board campaign, which saw 32 employees pledge $797. This is an average of $24.90 per person.

Current totals in all United Fund divisions are:

Industrial D — $73,543 of a $77,500 goal, for 94.9 per cent; Industrial E — $143,213 of a $155,000 goal, for 92.4 per cent; Utilities, Transportation and Construction — $28,203 of a $33,000 goal, for 85.5 per cent; Women — $10,984 of a $13,000 goal, for 84.3 per cent; Industrial F — $1,095 of a $1,300 goal, for 84 per cent.

Professional — $19,925 of a $26,000 goal, for 76.6 per cent; Special Gifts — $22,514 of a $30,000 goal, for 75 per cent; Industrial B — $69,837 of a $95,000 goal, for 73.5 per cent; Industrial C — $35,014 of a $48,000 goal, for 72.9 per cent; Industrial A — $18,333 of a $27,000 goal, for 67.9 per cent.

Finance, Real Estate and Insurance — $11,245 of a $18,000 goal, for 62.5 per cent; Retail, Wholesale and Services — $13,328 of a $23,000 goal, for 57.9 per cent; National Firms — $10,959 of a $21,000 goal, for 52.2 per cent; and Public Services — $7,673 of a $23,000 goal, for 33.4 per cent.

Two Teens Held Neighbor Thwarts SJ Twp. Burglary

A break-in early this morning at Chick Haven restaurant, 2675 Niles avenue, St. Joseph township, was thwarted because a nearby resident had a cramp in the leg that caused her to get up, according to Berrien county Sheriff's Deputy Jack D. Root.

Root said the resident got up, looked out the window and saw an intruder on a ladder at the establishment. A call was placed to police at 3:50 a.m.

Arrested in an auto in the restaurant parking lot were, Robert Gene Brummett, 17, of 916 Lewis avenue, St. Joseph; and a 16-year-old boy of St. Joseph township. Both were booked on charges of breaking and entering. Two cases of beer were recovered, Root said.

Root said seven patrol cars from St. Joseph, Lincoln township, Sodus, Benton township and the sheriff's department, responded. This was largely because the resident first called Benton township police.

SIX OTHERS
Six other burglaries were reported in the twin city area.

Sheriff's deputies early this morning investigated a break-in at the home of Harry E. Beckman, 981 Brookfield drive, St. Joseph, and were told that guns, ammunition and a hunting knife, valued at $620, were missing. ## South Haven Defense Stops Fifth-Ranked Plainwell!

PLAINWELL. — South Haven cashed in on an early Plainwell mistake and showed a stellar defense the rest of the way to pull off a stunning 7-6 Wolverine upset here Friday night.

Plainwell, which entered the game riding a nine-game unbeaten streak as the Wolverine leader and the state's fifth-ranked Class B team, fumbled the ball away on the first series of the game and South Haven took over on the Trojan 30-yard line.

Coach Bob Feely's Rams pounded it in from there with fullback Jim Knapp carrying six times, including the last one for a six-yard run and the touchdown. Steve Rusin then booted what proved to be the game winning extra point.

A key play in the short touchdown drive was a first down pass from quarterback Hank Stone to sophomore wing back John Mezak on a fourth-and-four play from the Plainwell 19.

"I'm just tickled pink for the kids," commented Feely, the dean of southwestern Michigan coaches. "You just had to be there to believe it. They really got the most out of their ability tonight." Plainwell's touchdown came in the third quarter on an 84-yard drive. Halfback Brad Whitmore, who finished as the game's leading rusher with 150 yards in 11 carries, went the final 13 yards for the touchdown. Plainwell tried a pass for a two-point PAT, which would have won the game if successful, but South Haven's John Grunst intercepted the aerial.

The Rams came up with three sterling defensive efforts while knocking Plainwell from the unbeaten ranks and from the Wolverine lead.

In the second quarter, Plainwell fumbled the ball away again at the South Haven two, but the Rams were soon forced to punt after gaining just five yards in three tries.

Knapp went back into the end zone on what Feely called "the key play of the game" and boomed a punt out to midfield where Ram "fly man" Mezak nailed the runner.

Th second threat came when time ran out on the Trojans at half-time on about the Ram 15.

And then late in the fourth period, Plainwell had a first down on the South Haven four with about two minutes remaining but ended up back on the 20 with Ram Dan Rhoads coming through with the big play in throwing the Trojan quarterback for a loss on an attempted pass play.

"They just didn't give an inch," added Feely. "They rose to the occasion and were tremendous tonight. They gave it everything they had."

Rhodes finished as the leading Ram tackler from his middle linebacker post with 18, while Mezak added 14 as a Rover-back. Fumble recoveries were added by end Robert Scott with two and end Ed Whitey with one.

Knapp led the South Haven offense with 111 yards in "workhorse" total of 35 carries. Plainwell, which had previously battled to a 0-0 deadlock with Comstock, now stands 4-1-1 in the Wolverine and 5-1-1 overall. South Haven is 4-2 in the league and 4-3 on the season.

Allegan now leads the Wolverine with a 5-1 mark.

Sleeping Bears
Awake--47-13!

By JAKE SHUBINSKI

PORTAGE. — St. Joseph's offense awoke from a two week hibernation with a vengeance here Friday night by scoring a 47-13 victory over the Portage Mustangs.

It really wasn't that close. Able to score but two touchdowns in their last two games, the Bears scored every time they had their hands on the ball in the first half and held a 47-0 lead when the bands took the field at halftime.

Never let it be said, however, that St. Joseph coach Ike Muhlenkamp was guilty of pouring it on. The way the Bears played in the first half, the final score could have been out of sight had Muhlenkamp let his regulars play more... maybe.

On St. Joseph's first offensive play of the second half, a Dennis Patzer pitchout intended for Mike Damschroder was way out of reach and Central's Don Johnson fell on the ball at the Bears' 46.

This was about the only mistake the Bears' first unit made, and it was their last as Muhlenkamp used everybody on the bench the rest of the night.

St. Joseph's first string defensive unit stayed in the game for the first two times Northern had the ball in the second half. But after Bob Basselman intercepted a pass midway of the period, the St. Joseph defense was turned over to reserves.

"After that pass interception, we didn't play another senior the rest of the game," said Muhlenkamp who must be credited with the understatement of the year when he declared, "The boys played a pretty good game that first half." He said it with a slight grin on his face.

The Bears scored eight touchdowns in the first half, but one didn't count as a pass interception by Mike Robach in the second quarter was called by a clipping penalty.

Five Bears scored touchdowns and Dave Hedstrom kicked five extra points. He had to do one twice as the Bears were off sides on the conversion attempt after their second touchdown.

The Bears struck both by land and in the air as Patzer tallied twice. Don Radde scored once and Fritz Knauf twice on running plays. Patzer hit flanker Stan Watts for one TD and end Packy Ryan for another.

The Bears first score came on a broken play on the third play of the game. The Mustangs jumped the count and, instead of stopping the play, Patzer went up the middle and continued.

A block by Steve Marquardt aided Radde on his 21 yard sweep of the Mustangs' left end for the Bears second touchdown. A 34 yard pass play from Patzer to Watts on the previous play set the stage for the score.

Knauf, who carried the ball only three times, gained 72 yards, 57 of which came with one minute left in the first quarter when he broke through the middle of the Mustang line and went the distance with the aid of some good blocking.

Portage got its only first down of the first half on the opening play of the second quarter, then moved to midfield where a fourth and one try was stopped dead.

On the first St. Joseph play,

Watts was open at the 20 and never broke stride as he took a scoring pass from Patzer.

Portage's third play following the kickoff resulted in Robach's interception. The clip was called at the six and moved the Bears back to the 21. Mike Damschroder moved the ball to the 12, then Knauf went off tackle for the score.

A pass interception by Knauf at the Bears' 48 got the St. Joseph on its way to TD No. 6. The big play in the drive was a 21 yard gainer by Damschroder that put the Bears on the Portage two. Damschroder gained a yard on the next play, then Patzer moved in for the score.

The Bears moved 59 yards with Damschroder gaining 32 in four carries, for their last touchdown. A pass for nine yards from Patzer to Ryan was the scoring play.

Damschroder's name was missing for the list of touchdowns scorers, the hard-running halfback carried the ball 13 times for 89 yards and was not thrown for a single loss.

The Bears rolled up 222 yards on the ground and added 93 in the air in the first half. The defensive unit, along with intercepting two passes, held Portage to a net of 12 yards gained, four in the first quarter and eight in the second.

Portage, aided by three St. Joseph second half fumbles, gained 73 yards on the ground and 46 in the air in the second 24 minutes while stopping the Bear reserves for a minus 19 yards on the ground.

A blocked punt by Randy Phillips gave the Mustangs the ball at the midfield marker midway of the third quarter. With the help of two passes good for 39 yards, Portage finally scored when Dave Worley went over from the two late in the period. Scott Graham

NILES. — Coloma didn't pull any "tricks" on Brandywine here Friday night, but the Comets did "treat" their fans to outright possession of the Blossomland championship.

Standout Comet fullback Tony Vitale ran straight at the Bobcats with his patented off-tackle play for 185 yards and two touchdowns as Coloma bagged the title with an impressive 20-6 triumph.

"It's a doggone good feeling," I'll tell you that," commented Comet coach Bob Rakauski on the championship while staying away from the Comet dressing room where players were plotting the traditional shower. "I'll just sit here and glow awhile, I guess."

It's Coloma's first football title since the Little Eight title was earned way back in 1954. And Rakauski has developed the championship club in his two years as head coach.

The Comets are currently riding a 13-game winning streak as the only perfect team left in southwestern Michigan. They are also the area's best defensive unit while being ranked Tigers into submission with a relentless running attack spearheaded by fullback Jim Spilka, an 185-pound irresistible force.

Spilka smashed over for the Crusaders' first two touchdowns on runs of eight and nine yards and finished the night with 113 yards in 16 carries although he played offense only on the first series of the second half.

Before the night was over, Keating employed 13 young men to carry the ball and all but one made a positive contribution to the team's total of 305 yards rushing, with Tom Holmes and Frank Belmonte also running for touchdowns.

Occasionally, the Crusaders switched from a truncheon to a rapier, hitting three of five passes for 63 yards and two touchdowns.

One of the aerial strikes was an 11-yard hookup on fourth down between quarterback Bruce Bourdon and end Steve Spetoskey in the second quarter. The other was a beautifully executed 47-yard halfback pass from Jim White to Mark Carls-lake that caught the Tigers napping in the third period.

The Crusaders' quick-hitting defense completely ensnared Benton Harbor's swift running backs and held the Tigers to only 44 yards rushing, with 35 of those yards coming on Benton Harbor's lone touchdown drive against the clean-shirted Crusader benchwarmers with less than three minutes remaining in the game.

Rodney Rhodes set it up with a kickoff return to the Crusader 35 after taking a lateral from Staten Hines and he covered the final 27 yards in two carries, scooting 13 yards for the TD. Hines added the two-point conversion after two penalties had moved the ball to the one-yard line.

Stopped cold on the ground, the Tigers repeatedly attempted to pass but found the air lanes equally hazardous. Quarterback Jim Grannell hit on only 2 of 12 passes for a total of 19 yards and had three intercepted — two by Belmonte and one by the ever-present Spilka, who terrorized the Tigers from his linebacking position.

Benton Harbor's problems were intensified by injuries that robbed the team of its top two right guards. Bob Koern re-injured a bad knee in warmup drills before the game even started and Don Pierce aggravated an ankle injury early in the game. Both may be lost for the remainder of the season.

"On the first five plays we lost our first two guards and our first two linebackers," Butgereit said of Pierce and Koern. "We had Mike Hohnstein in there on offense and he'd never played guard before. That's no alibi, but it didn't help us."

So effective was Muskegon Catholic's defense that Benton Harbor was able to run only seven offensive plays in the first quarter and six in the third period, and three of those 13 resulted in pass interceptions.

Tim Cully led the Tigers in tackles, but too often the Crusader backs pulled away from apparent stops, with Spilka setting the pace by cracking four tackles on a 24-yard run in the second period.

The setback eliminated Benton Harbor from LMAC title contention with a 1-2 record and two games to go, and leaves the Tigers with a 4-3 record to take on the road for their final two games at Traverse City and Muskegon Mona Shores.

Muskegon Catholic, now 6-1 for the season, can wrap up an undisputed championship by beating Muskegon in the season finale two weeks hence.

No Tricks...Coloma Earns Treat

NILES. — Coloma didn't pull any "tricks" on Brandywine here Friday night, but the Comets did "treat" their fans to outright possession of the Blossomland championship.

Standout Comet fullback Tony Vitale ran straight at the Bobcats with his patented off-tackle play for 185 yards and two touchdowns as Coloma bagged the title with an impressive 20-6 triumph.

while posting his third straight 100-plus night of rushing. The first-year running back has now gained 471 yards in the last three games for a 5.3 yards per carry average.

"It's our bread and butter play," explained Rakauski on Vitale's off-tackle thrusts. "It's worked all year. But I've got to give credit to the offensive line. They (opponents) have got to know what play is coming...

we run it so many times." Tony's brother, John, and John Hansen lead the charge on the play from their offensive tackle spots.

Vitale scored Coloma's first two touchdowns Friday... on a four-yard run in the first quarter and on a one-yard burst in the fourth period. Wingback George Hauch finished off the Comet scoring with a seven-yard TD scamper around right end on a counter play. Vitale also accounted for Coloma's only PAT on a run after his first touchdown.

It took an 82-yard kickoff return by Bobcat Larry Shreve after the final Coloma score to get Brandywine close to the Comet goal line for the first time.

Shreve was finally pushed out of bounds at the time by Dana Carlson, who kicked off, but the Bobcats still scored three plays later, with 4:07 left to play, on a one-yard sneak by quarterback Wade Little.

Brandywine still finished with just three first downs and a total offense of 83 yards, while Coloma was rolling up 333 yards and 21 first downs.

sion of the ball beyond its own 34 until the long kickoff return late in the game and finished with just 36 plays from scrimmage.

Coloma, meanwhile, took over the ball four times in Brandywine territory and five times outside of its own 40 while running off a commanding 82 plays.

Brandywine was hampered by the loss of speedy halfback Dorian Davis, who entered the game as the Blossomland scoring leader, but carried the ball just four times for 12 yards because of a knee injury.

Poor punting also kept the Bobcats in trouble. They were forced to kick eight times by the tenacious Comet defense and only averaged 21 yards per attempt.

"It was one of our best defensive efforts," continued Rakauski. "If they hadn't go that long kickoff return, I don't think they would have scored."

Coloma started its first TD march on its own 43 after a 13-yard Bobcat punt. The Comet marched 57 yards in eight plays with Vitale going over from the four with 1:03 left in the first period. The big play of the drive was a 22-yard pass play from Carlson to Hauch.

The score remained at 8-0 until the fourth period. On the last play of the third quarter, Davis fumbled after gaining five yards on a pass from Little and John Thomas recovered for the Comets on the Brandywine 43.

The Comets moved to pay dirt in five plays with the help of a 15-yard penalty against Brandywine. Vitale reeled off the big gainer of 15 yards and then scored from the one with 10:47 left to play.

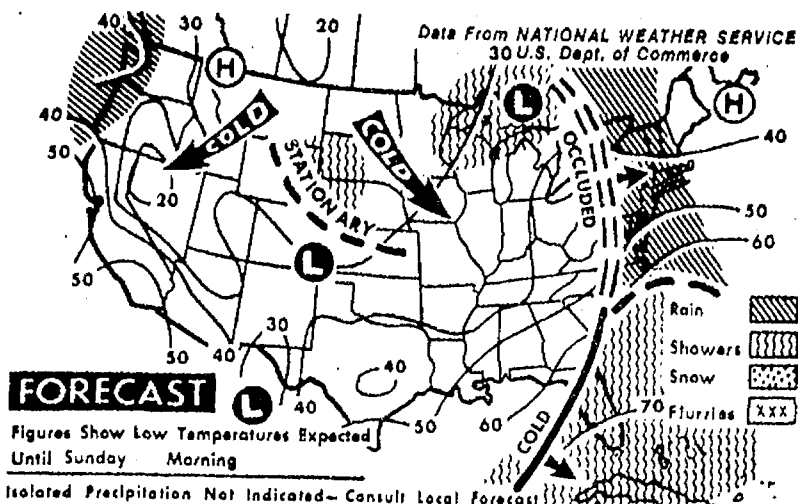

Coloma then added its final touchdown the next time it got the ball by going 54 yards in 10 plays, capped by Hauch's TD dash. Vitale gained 35 yards in six totes in the drive.

Leading Comet rushers behind, workhorse Vitale was Hauch with 41 yards in 13 carries and Dave Balsi with 31 yards in six attempts. Vitale also caught two passes for 21 yards, while Carlson was 6 for 12 in the vital department for 51 yards.

"It was the top Brandywine rusher with 20 yards in 13 carries. And end Joe Carlson was the top Comet blocker. (See COMETS, Page 13)

INVESTORS' GUIDE

Stock Trading Deal Has Expert Puzzled

BY SAM SHULSKY

Q. — What should I do about a computing stock on which I lost about $8,000? I sold it out pretty near the bottom, on my broker's advice, and went into other issues on which I also lost money. I wanted to buy the computer stock back again, but my broker talked me out of it. When it kept rising, I changed brokers and the new one advised me to buy bonds which I did. I am also buying E bonds. I'm puzzled.

A. — I'm puzzled, too. I don't understand just where you're headed. (For that matter, I don't know your starting point, either. You tell me nothing about your age, resources, responsibilities, investment needs.)

If you want to trade stocks — which you have found a costly business — please don't ask me to guide you. I'm a poor trader to start with. And asking for trading advice which has to be five, six or seven weeks old by the time you get it is ridiculous. If you want to trade, what are you doing with money in bonds? The E bonds I understand — at least up to the point where you have a solid, comfortable, tax-deferred nest egg.

But high price/earnings, wildly moving computer stocks and bonds are hardly horses which can pull together in the same team.

STOP FOOLISHNESS

Q. — I'm a woman of 79, always manage to take off some stock losses against my taxable income. (I always wind up minus on stock and bond trades.)

A. — If you haven't learned by 79 to stop this foolishness, I don't know when you will. Put your money into some recent high-grade bond issues for generous, safe income — and leave it there. Get your "kicks" from buying wild hats.

Shulsky welcomes written questions, but he will be able to provide answers only through the column.

BH House Damaged By Fire

A smoldering mattress erupted into flames causing heavy damage early today to a house at 844 East Vineyard street, Benton Harbor.

An occupant of the house was attempting to carry the mattress down a stairway when the flames broke out. Five persons in the house escaped without injury, although firemen on arrival received a report someone was trapped on the burning second floor.

Fireman Tom Fogarty received minor burns from tar on the hands.

Firemen said the house was occupied by the Clarence Petty family and owned by Rex Sheeley.

Youth, 18, Gets Life In Prison

DETROIT (AP)—An 18-year-old youth was sentenced to life in prison Friday for the firebombing deaths of two girls last May. The judge then blasted Michigan's juvenile laws which he said prevented the alleged bomb-tosser from being tried as an adult.

Recorder's Judge Thomas L. Poindexter said in the courtroom that the "actual one who threw the firebomb in this case, according to the evidence" was free.

Poindexter sentenced Cornell Fuller, 18, in the deaths of Ruth Turner, 12, and her 4-year-old sister, Regina, in May.

LAUGHED AT TRIAL

The judge told Fuller at the sentencing the other youth "came into this court and sat and laughed while the trial was going on. I think many people would believe that he should have been sitting by you and should have been tried in this particular case."

The judge was referring to a 16-year-old youth. During the trial, Jeffrey Coleman, 14, testified for the prosecution he saw the 16-year-old light and throw the fire bomb.

In prosecution testimony, Fuller was identified as the look-out.

Juvenile Court Judge James B. Lincoln ruled Sept. 1 that the 16-year-old could not be tried as an adult on a first-degree murder charge. During the hearing, two adults testified the youth was with them during the time of the fire.

Lincoln said "I continued the case from Aug. 7 to Sept. 1 to give police every opportunity to check the alibi witnesses. There was reasonable doubt to his guilt with these alibis."

The judge said if new evidence is found "I will definitely re-open the case."

Koehring Acquires BOMAG

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Koehring company has completed the acquisition of Boppard Maschinenbau GmbH (BOMAG), Boppard/Rhein, Germany, Orville R. Mertz, Koehring president announced. Agreement in principal on the transaction was disclosed in August.

The assets and business of BOMAG were acquired in the exchange of all BOMAG shares for 315,000 shares of Koehring common and 2,295,000 in cash. BOMAG sales will reach an estimated $16 million in 1970.

Mertz said "The addition of BOMAG not only gives us a line of very fine vibratory compaction equipment, but also excellent management expertise in the person of Karl H. Schwamborn who will continue to head the operation as president and general manager. BOMAG has shown excellent growth. Mertz continued, "and has manufacturing and major sales companies or licenses in Germany, Austria, England, Canada, South Africa and Japan."

Mertz added that BOMAG's worldwide distribution system should result in considerably greater market opportunities for Koehring in the compaction and light construction field.

Koehring is a manufacturer of specialized equipment and components serving the construction, hydraulics, woodlands, plastics processing and farm markets. Koehring is the parent firm, of the Benton Harbor Engineering company.

Authorities Seek Source Of Poison

JACKSON (AP) — Authorities are seeking to find the dining room source of food poisoning that has affected about 150 of the 370 guards at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson.

The guard suffered the attacks of Salmonella enteritidis in mid-October, with some victims hospitalized for a week.

Dr. Donald Cochran, director of the Michigan Health Department's communicable disease control division, said the source must have been in the guard's dining room.

No new cases have developed since it was closed Oct. 20.

STILL CLOSED

"Our assumption was correct that somehow some contaminated food got into that dining room," said Cochran. "It's still closed, and we've ordered the dining hall be completely cleaned and new equipment installed."

Cochran also said that five inmates who work in the kitchen also developed food poisoning, which usually originates in poultry products or eggs.

Cochran said the guards have been advised to take precautions to insure against the spread of food poisoning to their families.

"We'll be months examining our specimens and perhaps there are still carriers inside the prison," said Cochran. But at least our main worry is over, that the disease might spread to the main dining hall and 4,000 prisoners."

Another Big Ballot For Michigan's Voters

For an off-year (non-presidential) election, area voters will find themselves faced with an exceedingly big list of candidates and proposals to consider when they go to the polls Nov. 3.

The names of about 80 candidates for 24 and more seats in political and judicial offices will be spread out on the ballot, for example, before the average voter, in Berrien county.

From governor and U.S. Senator down through county and township, the offices to be filled cover three levels of government.

The plentitude of candidates in an off-year election results from the fact that the old spring election at which state educational positions and township offices were chosen has been abandoned. These offices now are filled at the fall elections.

The gubernatorial contest, and the race for U.S. Senate are the top features of next Tuesday's election, from a broad point of view. But there are important local officeholders, state legislators, state educational officers and judicial officials to be chosen, too.

And there are three state proposals to be decided, two of them proposed constitutional amendments and one a proposition submitted for voter referendum by the state legislature.

Berrien county electors also will be faced with a proposition to raise the property tax limit from 15 mills up to 16 mills and to freeze the shares that are allotted to the county, townships, school districts and intermediate school district.

Another decision for voters in Berrien county and in Covert township in Van Buren will be to pick two members of the board of trustees of Lake Michigan college for six-year terms.

A major selection in all southwestern Michigan counties will be naming of county commissioners for the governing bodies of the respective counties.

Non-partisan judicial ballots will call for the selection of two state supreme court justices, a Third district appeals court judge, and county probate judges.

Residents in all units except the cities will vote for the first time in four years for township officers.

An addition, residents of some townships and villages will find local propositions on their ballots.

Because many of the offices have differing boundaries, this election guide contains a series of maps for the county supervisor districts, state representative districts, state senate districts and Fourth Congressional district.

For the benefit of new voters, infrequent voters and those who for other reasons are not sure of how to cope with the operation of voting machines, this election guide also carries instructions on how to operate the machines.

There is no attempt to tell you how to vote. This guide only offers a thumbnail sketch of each candidate so you can become familiar with the names and backgrounds of those you don't know.

How you vote is your own decision. Be sure you vote!

United States Senate

Democratic

PHILIP A. HART, 57, Detroit (Democrat-Incumbent) is seeking election to his third term as U.S. senator. A graduate of the University of Michigan Law School in 1937, Hart was wounded D-Day on Utah Beach, Normandy. The former Detroit lawyer was U.S. district attorney for eastern Michigan in 1952. In 1954, he was elected lieutenant governor of Michigan and re-elected to that office in 1956. He became a U.S. senator in 1958. He was elected assistant majority whip of the Senate in 1966 and 1967. He has served on numerous Senate committees during his last two terms.

Republican

LENORE ROMNEY, 61, (Republican) is the nation's only woman running for a U.S. Senate seat this year. The wife of George Romney, former Michigan governor and now secretary of Housing and Urban Development, Mrs. Romney was born in Logan, Utah, and is a university graduate. ## Three Statewide Proposals To Decide Voters here and across Michigan will decide three statewide propositions, two of them proposed amendments to the Michigan constitution.

Proposal A would permit the state to borrow $100 million to build low-income housing. Proposal B would lower the state minimum voting age from 21 to 18, and Proposal C would ban public aid to non-public schools and students.

The last two proposals would amend the state constitution. The 18-year-old vote may be a moot question if the U.S. Supreme Court rules as constitutional a recently enacted federal law that lowers the voting age to 18 all across the U.S.

Proposal C would ban all public funds to non-public elementary and secondary schools and students, except for transportation, and would ban all direct or indirect loan of public monies, credits, tax benefits or deductions toward non-public education.

The proposals appear on the ballot thus:

"PROPOSAL A
"PROPOSAL TO AUTHOR-IZE BONDS FOR LOW IN-COME HOUSING"

"Shall the state of Michigan borrow the sum of $100,000,000, and issue general obligation bonds of the state therefor pledging the full faith and credit of the state for the payment of principal and interest thereon for the purpose of increasing the supply of decent, safe, and sanitary low income housing and eliminating slums and blight, and for the making of grants, loans, and advances to municipalities of the state and redevelopment corporations for such purposes, the method of repayment of said bonds to be from the general fund of the state?"

"PROPOSAL B
"PROPOSAL TO CHANGE
THE MINIMUM VOTING AGE
TO 18 YEARS."

"Shall the Michigan Constitution be amended to change the minimum voting age from 21 years to 18 years?"

"PROPOSAL C
"PROPOSED CONSTITU-TIONAL AMENDMENT TO PROHIBIT PUBLIC AID TO NON-PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND STUDENTS"

"This amendment adds language to the constitution to:

"(a) Prohibit use of public funds to aid any non-public elementary or secondary school;

"(b) Prohibit use of public funds, except for transportation, to support the attendance of any students or the employment of any person at non-public schools or at any other location or institution where instruction is offered in whole or in part to non-public school students;

"(c) Prohibit any payment, credit, tax benefit, exemption or deductions, tuition voucher, subsidy, grant or loan of public monies or property, directly or indirectly, for the above purposes.

"Should this amendment be adopted?"

Tax Proposal In Berrien County

Berrien county voters Nov. 3 have their own separate issue — whether to raise property taxes one mill and freeze the shares distributed to county government, schools, townships and the county intermediate school district.

The property tax rate for years has been 15 mills but the proposition if approved would raise it to 16 mills and freeze the shares. The limit does not affect extra voted millage.

The proposal reads as follows:

"Shall separate tax limitations be established for a period of five (5) years or until sooner altered by the voters of the County, for the County of Berrien and the townships and school districts within the County, the aggregate of which shall not exceed 16.00 mills, as follows:

"County of Berrien ..... 5.85 mills

"Townships ..... 1.25 mills

"Intermediate School District ..... 20 mills

"School Districts .. 8.70 mills

(a school district located entirely within a city or charter township shall receive in addition millage equal to the township millage.)

"TOTAL ..... 16.00 mills"

Candidates' Names are arranged alphabetically on this instruction ballot. The location of the offices will be the same on all machines. The location of the Non-Partisan Candidates' Names will be different in each Precinct as they will be related in accordance with the law throughout the County.

Allegan County Commissioners

ALLEGAN — Allegan county voters will settle only one contest among candidates for the county board of commissioners Nov. 3 but will name at least five newcomers to the 21-member body.

The contest involves District Nine which covers Dorr township. One of the five new members will be named from the race since incumbent Commissioner Clem Rewa did not seek re-election.

Ronald Belka of Dorr is seeking to succeed Rewa, a fellow Democrat, as the district's representative. He is the lone Democratic candidate to seek one of the 21 offices. Reinder Hoeksema, also of Dorr, is the Republican candidate in District Nine.

The other new faces will come from four uncontested races. Three of the four earned their way into the field by over coming incumbent Republican commissioners in the GOP primary in August.

The three are Grover Grigsby (R), in District 14 (Trowbridge and Cheshire townships); Kenneth Rynbrandt (R), District 16

(Overisel and Salem townships); and John Vogelzang (R), District 17 (Holland).

Allegan County Judges

ALLEGAN — Officers of probate judge and circuit judge for Allegan county will be filled without contest in the Nov. 3 general election.

The two officers are the only ones involved in countywide balloting.

Probate Judge Dwight M. Cheever, 57, Allegan, and Circuit Court Judge Wendell A. Miles, 54, Holland, are the candidates.

Cheever is seeking election to his first full six-year term as probate judge. He was appointed to fill the present term in 1965 succeeding the late Probate Judge Harold Weston.

Cheever was serving as Allegan municipal judge, a post he had held since 1957, when appointed. He was county prosecutor from 1951 to 1957. From 1941 to 1948, he was a special agent of the FBI serving in such areas as Omaha, Neb., Washington, D.C., Detroit and Covington, Ky.

Judge Miles is seeking election to the unexpired four-year portion of the term of the late Judge Chester Ray. Miles was appointed to the office in June. The circuit covers Ottawa county as well as Allegan.

In 1966, Miles sought election as circuit judge, but lost to the late Judge Ray. He was Republican nominee for the state attorney general's office in 1960.

Miles served as Ottawa county prosecuting attorney from 1948 to 1953 and from 1953 to 1960 as a U.S. District attorney. From 1960 until his appointment, he was head of a private law firm based in Grand Rapids.

Allegan County Townships

ALLEGAN — Voters in Casco and Ganges townships in Allegan county are slated to settle one community issue apiece in the Nov. 3 general election.

Nearby Clyde township voters, at the same time, will be naming a new supervisor and new clerk since neither incumbent officeholder sought re-election.

The supervisor's seat has attracted the lone contest between candidates in four townships in the southwestern part of Allegan county.

Seeking the Clyde supervisor job on the Republican ticket is Leonard Walaszewski. He is being challenged by John Hollander who is conducting a write-in campaign under a non-partisan banner. The post is now held by Richard H. Barnes.

The issue in Casco township involves sale of liquor by the glass within the township boundaries. Similar proposals have been defeated twice in recent years.

In Ganges township, voters will decide whether to establish a township zoning and building requirement code.

The candidates, with exception of Hollander, are all Republicans in the four townships.

By townships, the candidates are: CASCO: Supervisor, Rankin Lyman; clerk, Albert Overhiser; treasurer, Mrs. Pauline Lyman (sister-in-law of Rankin Lyman); and trustee, Henry Compton.

GANGES: Supervisor, Russell Sill; clerk, Waldo E. Phelps; treasurer, K.N. VanLeeuwen, and trustee, Howard Margot.

The judge, his wife and two sons live at Dowagiac. Mrs. Eby is a speech-hearing therapist employed at Berrien Springs.

Cass County Townships

CASSOPOLIS — The only contests for officers of townships in northwestern Cass county are in Pokagon and Silver Creek townships.

Cass Votes On Electric Franchise

CASSOPOLIS — Four Cass county townships will decide by ballot Nov. 3 on whether or not to extend the Indiana-Michigan Electric company's franchise for another 30 years.

Townships voting on the question will be Howard, Milton, Silver Creek and Ontwa.

The question is the only one on the township level to be raised in the entire county. It signals the expiration of the current 30-year pact between the power company and the townships.

The franchise gives the company the right to operate as a retail business in the township, and to use township streets and alleys for the installation of electric transmission wires.
